Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Thank you very much for your letter of September 8. From the way you describe your press, it seems to me that news about you upcoming book definetely should be in the Trade News section. Please let me know the details about it (title, author, pub date and price, also your distributor) as soon as you have setteld on a definite publication date. It would also be interesting to include in the story figures about your previous sales in this series.

Looking forward to hearing from you in the near future.

Sincerely,

Mildred Sola Neely
